Arriving in Hertford on the A414:

- Follow signs to Brickendon and the County Council on Pegs Lane.
- At the mini roundabout turn left and carry on past the Council buildings on your right hand side.
- Continue downhill on the same road, now Bullocks Lane.
- Turn left at the mini roundabout onto Horns Mill Road and then second left onto Brickendon Lane which will take you all the way to Brickendon.
- You will pass a row of houses on your right then Edwards Farm and Monks Green Farm on your left.
- Keep going, you will pass larger houses on your l.h.s. and 3 cottages called Swards Cottages. Slow down ready to turn left.
- You will then see a large barn in a field behind some trees on the r.h.s. and a post and rail fence on the l.h.s of the road, just before this fence turn left up the RUPP (road used as a public path).
- About 20m up the RUPP track on your r.h.s. there is an iron barrier gate - this is the car park. If you have not turned left onto the RUPP and you have passed the Brickendon village sign you have gone too far.
- Park in the car park and walk through the wooden gate marked 'no vehicle access' turning to the right up the track to Celtic Harmony Camp.
